Snyder, Mrs. Curtis Knight and Mrs. O. K. Lewis.

Another pretty wedding of Tuesday was that of Miss Marie Erickson and Mr. Percy W. Saville, which took place in the evening at their new home. It was a quiet affair, only the relatives and intimate friends being present, but a delightful time was spent by all. The rooms were daintily adorned with flowers, and refreshments were served.

The wedding of Miss Virginia Louise Burton and Ralph Cutler took place on Wednesday, the ceremony being performed in the Temple and a reception following in the evening at 206 State street. The home was prettily decorated and a sumptuous repast was served, a large number being present to enjoy the pretty affair. The bride is the daughter of Bishop Burton and the groom a son of the late John Cutler, who received numerous presents and have many friends who will extend congratulations and good wishes.

One of the most delightful events of the week was the luncheon given by Mrs. Terry and Mrs. Akers at the Alta club on Wednesday. The table was arranged in the form of a hollow square, and the center was a bank of palms with ropes of emilax stretching to each corner. The inner side was bordered with pink and white asters and around this crystal candelabra were lined, with large crystal candelabra at each corner. Pink and white asters in tall vases, completed the brilliant and artistic effect. The place cards were decorated with Greek figures. The Niles Mandolin club stationed behind a group of palms, furnished delightful music. Covers were laid for 36.

Mrs. L. C. Miller was hostess at an old-fashioned tea yesterday in honor of her mother, Mrs. Velle, and her aunt who are her guests. OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS.

The leading social event of the week was the marriage of Miss Hedvig T. Garff to Mr. Ernest P. Brown, which took place Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 24, in the Logan temple. Mr. and Mrs. Brown returned home Thursday evening and a pretty reception was given at their home, No. 357 Patterson avenue, which was attended only by the relatives of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends. The home was prettily decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and evergreens. A sumptuous repast was served during the evening.

The bride and groom are both very popular and highly esteemed in Ogden. The bride is a charming and accomplished young lady, and the groom is the well known Southern Pacific engineer brakeman. Mr. and Mrs. Brown have many friends in Ogden who will be pleased to wish them much joy and prosperity.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Peery returned home this week from an extended visit to Chicago and other eastern points.

The Ogden High school gives a reception and ball this evening at Dignan's Dancing academy in honor of the Salt Lake High school students.

The ladies of the Congregational church gave a picture social Thursday evening which was greatly enjoyed.

The concert given Wednesday evening in the Fifth ward institute by Prof. C. Schettler of Salt Lake City, assisted by the Ogden Guitars and Mandolin club, was a thorough musical treat greatly enjoyed by the small audience. Each number on the program was heartily received, especially Prof. Schettler's guitar solos which were master pieces, such as are seldom heard on a string instrument.

One of the pleasant affairs of the week was the birthday party given Tuesday by Mrs. Harry Hill at her residence, 252, Thirtieth street, in honor
